37

RK—2386

DIPLOMA IN OBSTETRICS AND GYNAECOLOGY (D.G.O.) EXAMINATION, 2002

Paper I

Time : Three Hours Maximum : 100 Marks

Answer all questions.

Long Essays :

1. Write a detailed account how the euglycemic stage is maintained in pregnancy.
2. Narrate the balance between coagulation and fibrinolytic systems in normal and pregnancy state.

(2 × 20 = 40 marks)

Short Essays :

3. Herpes simplex virus in genital tract.
4. Veginosis.
5. Transformation zone in the cervix.
6. Clinical applications of prostidine.
7. Histogenesis of serus cystedenoma.
8. Mastalgia.

(6 × 10 = 60 marks)

38

RK—2387

DIPLOMA IN OBSTETRICS AND GYNAECOLOGY (D.G.O.) EXAMINATION, 2002

Paper II

Time : Three Hours Maximum : 100 Marks

Answer all questions.

Long Essays :

1. Describe in eclamptic fit. Discuss modern management of eclampsia.
2. Discuss the management and complications of diabetes mellitus in pregnancy and labour.

(2 × 20 = 40 marks)

Short Essays :

3. Hydrops foetalis.
4. Puerperal pyrexia.
5. Modern management of ectopic pregnancy.
6. Shoulder dystocia.
7. Safe motherhood.
8. Intra uterine growth retardation.

(6 × 10 = 60 marks)

T.N. MULLER MEMORIAL CENTRAL LIBRARY

(39)

RK—2388

DIPLOMA IN OBSTETRICS AND GYNAECOLOGY (D.G.O.) EXAMINATION, 2002

Paper III

Time : Three Hours Maximum : 100 Marks

Answer all questions.

Long Essays :

1. Discuss briefly the adolescent gynaecological problems and their management.
2. Discuss briefly the diagnosis, problems of and management of anovulation.

(2 × 20 = 40 marks)

Short Essays :

3. Medical management of hirsutism.
4. Medical management of endometriosis.
5. Risks and benefit of hormone replacement therapy.
6. Emergency contraception.
7. Klinefelter syndrome.
8. Retention cysts of ovary.

(6 × 10 = 60 marks)

